

Additional Matters Order (Blackburn) No. 1 of 2022

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 78 of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction and Care of Churches Measure 2018 the Chancellor makes the following order:

1. An authorised person may undertake any matter prescribed in the first column of the table in Schedule 1 without a faculty:
 - (a) If the archdeacon has been consulted on the proposal to undertake the matter and has given notice in writing that it may be undertaken without a faculty; and
 - (b) Subject to:
 - (i) The conditions that are specified in relation to that matter in the second column of the table; and
 - (ii) Any additional conditions imposed by the archdeacon under paragraph 2(b).
2. Where the archdeacon is consulted under paragraph 1(a) on the proposal to undertake a matter, the archdeacon:
 - (a) Must seek the advice of the Diocesan Advisory Committee or such of its members or officers as the archdeacon thinks fit before deciding whether to give notice that it may be undertaken without a faculty; and
 - (b) May make the undertaking of the matters subject to additional conditions specified by the archdeacon in the notice.
3. A notice given by the archdeacon under paragraph 1(a) must specify the proposals which may be undertaken without a faculty.
4. The archdeacon must retain a copy of every notice given under paragraph 1(a) and must also send a copy to:
 - (a) The registrar of the diocese for filing in the diocesan registry; and
 - (b) The secretary of the Diocesan Advisory Committee.
5. If the archdeacon declines to give notice under paragraph 1(a) that a proposal may be undertaken without a faculty the archdeacon must inform the applicants that they may, if they wish, petition the court for a faculty authorising the proposal.

6. Words and expression used in this Order have the same meaning as they have in rule 2.2 and Part 3 of the Faculty Jurisdiction Rules 2015 (as amended).
7. This Order may be cited as the Additional Matters Order (Blackburn) No. 1 of 2022.

Schedule 1 – Additional matters which may be undertaken without a faculty subject to consultation etc. [addition to List B]

Matter	Specified conditions
The installation of fixed cameras and other equipment for live-streaming services and other events in a church which is a listed building	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The PCC is aware of the proposals and has passed a supportive resolution 2. Details of all fixings, cameras and other equipment, their proposed location, and the location of any cable runs are submitted to the archdeacon when the archdeacon is consulted on the proposal to undertake the matter 3. In formulating those details, regard is had to the desirability of avoiding loss of or damage to historic fabric or other material 4. Regard is had to any guidance issued by the Church Buildings Council relating to privacy and the protection of personal data 5. Any work to an electrical installation is carried out by a person whose work is subject to an accredited certification scheme (as defined in rule 3.1(6))

Explanatory Note:

The installation of closed circuit television for security purposes may be undertaken without a faculty under List B1 (10) even in a listed building. However, under List B1 (15), the introduction of fixed audio-visual equipment may only be undertaken without a faculty in a church which is not a listed building. The Diocesan Advisory Committee consider that proposals for fixed cameras for livestreaming of services and other events in a listed church building should be capable of being undertaken without a full faculty application provided the archdeacon has been consulted on the proposal and has given notice in writing that it may be undertaken without a faculty.

Chancellor of the Diocese of Blackburn
