ALM Preaching Elective

23/02/21       Session 1 – What is Preaching?         7.15pm –       We introduce the different participants in a sermon and consider the purpose of preaching.         Zoom       By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.         FLEXIBLE (Online       Session 2a – The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture)         (Online       We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".         8y the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and recognise the questions they bring to the text.         02/03/21       Session 2b – The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm –       This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         Zoom       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         9/03/21       Session 3 – The Context for Preaching         7.15pm –       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices	Date & Time	Session Plan
7.15pm –       We introduce the different participants in a sermon and consider the purpose of         9.00pm       preaching.         Zoom       By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.         FLEXIBLE       Session 2a – The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture)         (Online       We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".         By the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and recognise the questions they bring to the text.         O2/03/21       Session 2b – The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm –       This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         Soopm       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         09/03/21       Session 3 – The Context for Preaching         7.15pm –       9.00pm         9.00pm       Preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having consider dth context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their s	23/02/21	Session 1 – What is Preaching?
9.00pm       preaching.         Zoom       By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.         FLEXIBLE       Session 2a – The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture)         (Online       We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".         02/03/21       Session 2b – The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm –       This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper         9.00pm       into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         200m       Session 3 – The Context for Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm –       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         09/03/21       Session 3 – The Context for Preaching         7.15pm –       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.         By the end of this session, students will be		-
By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.FLEXIBLE (Online resource for self-guided learning)Session 2a – The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture) (Me briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".02/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pm 2.00pmSession 2b – The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMS) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.09/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 3 – The Context for Preaching ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 3 – The Context for Preaching We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21 Sup the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21 2.00pmSession 4 – The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.2.00pmSession 15 – The Cardt of Preaching This session includes hearing a "live" sermon and intervi preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.FLEXIBLE (Online resoure for self-guided learning)Session 2a - The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture) (We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".02/03/21 Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.2000m 200m 200m 200mSession 3 - The Context for Preaching We he end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to alfferent people.09/03/21 Session 3 - The Context for Preaching We look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.00/00m SoomSession 3 - The Context for Preaching We look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21 SoomSession 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preach Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher. <td>Zoom</td> <td></td>	Zoom preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.FLEXIBLE (Online resoure for self-guided learning)Session 2a - The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture) (We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".02/03/21 Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.2000m 200m 200m 200mSession 3 - The Context for Preaching We he end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to alfferent people.09/03/21 Session 3 - The Context for Preaching We look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.00/00m SoomSession 3 - The Context for Preaching We look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21 SoomSession 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preach Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher.300pmSession 1 - The Call to Preaching Preacher. <td></td> <td>By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about</td>		By the end of this session, students will have explored some of their assumptions about
(Online resource for self-guided learning)We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble". 02/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others. 09/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 3 - The Context of Preaching We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons. 16/03/21 9.00pmSession 4 - The Call to Preach we consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons. 16/03/21 9.00pmSession 4 - The Call to Preach we consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher. 23/03/21 9.00pmSession includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher. 8 by the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching. 23/03/21 CoomSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching Vue look at different ways that se		preaching and considered some core biblical principles that underpin its practice.
resource for self-guided learning)reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble". 02/03/21 02/03/21 Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others. 09/03/21 ZoomSession 3 - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture) This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others. 09/03/21 7 .15pm - Sy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people. 09/03/21 7 .15pm - SoomSession 3 - The Context for Preaching Preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons. 16/03/21 Session 4 - The Coll to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher. 16/03/21 Soopm 200pmSession includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher. 16/03/21 Sogion 1 - The Corf of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and zoom 16/03/21 SogionSession 5 - The Corf of Preaching We look at di	FLEXIBLE	Session 2a – The Content of Preaching Part One (Wrestling with Scripture)
self-guided learning)       interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and discovering the importance of finding "trouble".         02/03/21       By the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and recognise the questions they bring to the text.         02/03/21       Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm -       This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         200m       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         09/03/21       Session 3 - The Context for Preaching 7.15pm -         9.00pm       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm         7.15pm -       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm         20om       By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.         16/03/21       Session 4 - The Call to Preach         7.15pm -       We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.         200m       Zoom         8y the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.         200pm<	(Online	We briefly explore how scriptures are given to or chosen by preachers, including some learning)discovering the importance of finding "trouble".By the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and recognise the questions they bring to the text.02/03/21Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)7.15pm - 9.00pmThis is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm200mbegin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200pmSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.	resource for	reflection on preaching from the lectionary. We take a look at the way we read and
By the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and recognise the questions they bring to the text.         02/03/21       Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)         7.15pm -       This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         200m       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         09/03/21       Session 3 - The Context for Preaching         7.15pm -       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.         8y the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.         16/03/21       Session 4 - The Call to Preach         7.15pm -       We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.         200m       Zoom         215/03/21       Session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.         8y the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.         23/03	self-guided	interpret scripture as preachers, considering the different "worlds" of the text and recognise the questions they bring to the text.02/03/21Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)7.15pm -This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper9.00pminto the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm -We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm9.00pmpreaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.9.00pmpreacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200pmpreaching.2150m -By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200mpreaching.22/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm	learning)	discovering the importance of finding "trouble".
recognise the questions they bring to the text.02/03/21Session 2b - The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)7.15pm -This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper9.00pminto the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm -We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm9.00pmpreaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.9.00pmpreacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200pmpreaching.2150m -By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200mpreaching.22/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm		By the end of this session, students will be more confident in exegeting the Bible and 7.15pm - 9.00pmThis is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people. 09/03/21 Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation. 16/03/21 Session 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200mSession 1 - Calf to Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.8the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss		recognise the questions they bring to the text.
9.00pm       into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.         Zoom       By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.         09/03/21       Session 3 – The Context for Preaching         7.15pm –       We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of 9.00pm         preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.         By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.         16/03/21       Session 4 – The Call to Preach         7.15pm –       We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.         Zoom       This session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.         By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.         23/03/21       Session 5 – The Craft of Preaching         7.15pm –       We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.         By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe	02/03/21	Session 2b – The Content of Preaching Part Two (Living in the Story of Scripture)
ZoomBy the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people. 09/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 3 - The Context for Preaching We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons. 16/03/21 9.00pmSession 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher. 16/03/21 2.00mSession includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.ZoomSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching Y.15pm - Y.00pmVe look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	7.15pm –	This is a practical session (solely for those training as ALMs) where we journey deeper
By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.8by the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	9.00pm	into the scriptures to encounter God on behalf of ourselves and others.
ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm -We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mZoom8y the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200mSession 4 - The Calf to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mZoom8y the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.9.00pmBy the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	Zoom
09/03/21Session 3 - The Context for Preaching7.15pm -We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of9.00pmpreaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, weZoombegin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.9.00pmpreacher.20omThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.9.00pmgripts.		By the end of this session, students will have a richer understanding of the variety of
7.15pm - 9.00pm ZoomWe look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.16/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200mSession includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.200mBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher.200mSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching23/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pmSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.23/03/21 8.00pmSession 1 - Unservice and information of the service and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.		ways God speaks through the scriptures to different people.
9.00pm Zoompreaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21 7.15pm - 9.00pm ZoomSession 4 - The Call to Preach We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200m 200m ZoomSession includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21 ZoomSession 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	09/03/21	Session 3 – The Context for Preaching
Zoombegin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.ZoomBy the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	7.15pm –	We look at what is sometimes called "congregational exegesis" and consider the task of their sermons.By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.200pmpreacher.ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm -We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	9.00pm	preaching in different contexts to a range of people. Having considered the context, we
By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	Zoom	begin to look at the choices that preachers make to determine a focus and function for structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.16/03/21Session 4 - The Call to Preach7.15pm -We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective9.00pmpreacher.ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm -We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss		their sermons.
<ul> <li>16/03/21</li> <li>Session 4 – The Call to Preach</li> <li>We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.</li> <li>Zoom</li> <li>This session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.</li> <li>By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.</li> <li>23/03/21</li> <li>Session 5 – The Craft of Preaching</li> <li>We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.</li> <li>By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss</li> </ul>		By the end of this session, students will be able to make better informed choices sermon
7.15pm - 9.00pmWe consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective preacher.ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss		structure and content based on their "reading" of the congregation.
9.00pm Zoompreacher. This session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	16/03/21	Session 4 – The Call to Preach
ZoomThis session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	7.15pm –	We consider the skills, habits and spiritual disciplines required to be an effective
By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.         23/03/21       Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching         7.15pm -       We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.         By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	9.00pm	•
preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	Zoom	This session includes hearing a "live" sermon and interviewing a guest preacher.
preacher and reflect the importance and impact of their own prayer and devotional life on preaching.23/03/21Session 5 - The Craft of Preaching7.15pm - 9.00pmWe look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss		By the end of this session, students will be able to identify the responsibilities of a on preaching.         23/03/21       Session 5 – The Craft of Preaching         7.15pm –       We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.         By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss 23/03/21Session 5 – The Craft of Preaching7.15pm –We look at different ways that sermons are crafted, considering introductions, signposts, transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.9.00pmSession 5 – The Craft of Preaching9.00pmTransitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.9.00pmBy the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss
<ul> <li>9.00pm</li> <li>200m</li> <li>transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and scripts.</li> <li>By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss</li> </ul>	23/03/21
Zoom scripts. By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss
By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss	9.00pm	transitions, and endings. We also discuss practical things such as voice control, notes and
	Zoom	scripts.
the way they have structured a short talk.		By the end of this session, using an example, students will be able to describe and discuss