

Cornelius Asghar

Cornelius, originally from Pakistan, moved to Blackpool with his wife Mona six years ago. Bringing 20 years of church education experience from his homeland, he carried his passion for service to the UK. On arrival he devoted himself to his local church and charities, showing deep community commitment. Before ministry training, he served as an ALM in Blackpool, demonstrating his faith in action. He serves as assistant curate at St Laurence's and St Peter's, Chorley. His ministerial passion shines through his work. Cornelius loves Jesus, prays fervently, inspires children and youth, nurtures disciples and offers relational pastoral care with spiritual renewal.
