

Session 4 – The Serving Jesus

LEADER'S NOTES

Gathering

Welcome the group back for session 4. If anyone is new to the group, make sure everyone introduces themselves. Ask if anyone has any reflections on last week's session.

Prayer

Leave a short time of silence for people to gather their thoughts and then open with this or another prayer:

Heavenly Father,
you reveal yourself to us in your Son Jesus Christ.
We thank you for this precious time of prayer and study.
As we attend to your Word and listen to each other,
help us to learn more about your Son Jesus and come to a deeper understanding of his saving work Above all help us to know him for ourselves, to love him,
to trust him,
and to offer him our hearts.
For you live and reign with Him and the Holy Spirit.
One god For ever and ever.
Amen.

Introduction

Introduce the session in these or other words.

A reminder that in this course we want to do two things.

First we want to know about Jesus, in other words grow in our understanding of who he is, what he has come to do and how he sets us free.

But second we want to know Jesus, in other words explore what to means to be in a deeper relationship with him and to offer our whole lives to him

This week our theme is the Servant Jesus.

Bible Study

This week's Bible passage is from Acts Chapter 6 verses 1 to 6. It tells the story of a conflict in the early Church and how it was resolved by the calling of seven deacons – a Greek word for servant.

Read the passage slowly and clearly.

Now during those days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food. ² And the twelve called together the whole community of the disciples and said, 'It is not right that we should neglect the word of God in order to wait at tables. ³ Therefore, friends, select from among yourselves seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this task, ⁴ while we, for our part, will devote ourselves to prayer and to serving the word.' ⁵ What they said pleased the whole community, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. ⁶ They had these men stand before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

Ask the following questions or others as you see fit:

- What lay at the heart of the crisis that led to the choice of the Deacons?
- What difference did the choice of the deacons/servants make to the Church community?
- What do you notice about the criteria chosen to appoint these seven?

Video

Now watch the video. It can be seen on the Diocesan Website or on the Fruitful app.

The text of the talk is also on the Fruitful app if you are struggling with the technology.

Discussion – Reflecting on the Talk

These questions are intended to prompt conversation. You don't need to use all of them and you may have better questions that you think of yourself. Just go with the flow of the conversation and pick out the questions you most like.

- What struck you in that talk? Did anything challenge you?
- What does it mean to you that, in Jesus, your God is your servant?
- Imagine Jesus kneeling to wash your feet. How would that make you feel? Would you protest, like Peter? If so, why?

- Do you find it easier to serve or to be served? Why does being served make you feel uncomfortable and what can you do about it?
- Whom do you serve and where do you serve in your daily life? Remember – there are many ways of serving!
- Do you find it easier to serve or share your faith? What steps can you take to balance these two up?

Hymn or Song

It really helps some people to reflect on the words of a well-known hymn or song. Either play the hymn or song, sing it or read it out.

This week there is a choice of hymns.

Those who prefer something more traditional can listen to the wonderful hymn 'Immortal Love' which is here.

Or you can use the more contemporary worship song 'What Gift of Grace' which is here.

Afterwards ask people to reflect on a word or expression which especially spoke to them about knowing Jesus.

Prayer

Close with a time of prayer.

- You can devise your own. If you are in the Diocese of Blackburn, try and incorporate the Diocesan Centenary Prayer which is below.
- A daytime group could end with Prayer during the Day which can be found here.
- An evening group could end with Compline which is printed below:

Preparation

The Lord almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end.
Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

A period of silence for reflection on the past day may follow.

The following or other suitable words of penitence may be used

Most merciful God, we confess to you,
before the whole company of heaven and one another,
that we have sinned in thought, word and deed and in what we have failed to do.
Forgive us our sins,
heal us by your Spirit and raise us to new life in Christ. Amen.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

The Word of God

Psalmody

One of the following psalms may be used.

Psalm 4

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness;
you set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- 2 How long will you nobles dishonour my glory;
how long will you love vain things and seek after falsehood?
- 3 But know that the Lord has shown me his marvellous kindness;
when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not;
commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in the Lord.
- 6 There are many that say, 'Who will show us any good?'
Lord, lift up the light of your countenance upon us.

7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their corn and wine and oil increase.

8 In peace I will lie down and sleep, for it is you Lord, only, who make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 91 verses 1-7

1 Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides under the shadow of the Almighty,

2 Shall say to the Lord, 'My refuge and my stronghold, my God, in whom I put my trust.'

3 For he shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.

4 He shall cover you with his wings and you shall be safe under his feathers;
his faithfulness shall be your shield and buckler.

5 You shall not be afraid of any terror by night,
nor of the arrow that flies by day;

6 Of the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor of the sickness that destroys at noonday.

7 Though a thousand fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, yet it shall not come near you.

Psalm 134

1 Come, bless the Lord, all you servants of the Lord, ♦ you that by night stand in the house of the Lord.

2 Lift up your hands towards the sanctuary ♦ and bless the Lord.

3 The Lord who made heaven and earth ♦ give you blessing out of Zion.

At the end of the psalmody, the following is said or sung

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

And the twelve called together the whole community of the disciples and said, 'It is not right that we should neglect the word of God in order to wait at tables. Therefore, friends, select from among yourselves seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this task, while we, for our part, will devote ourselves to prayer and to serving the word.'

Acts 6, 2-4

Silence is kept

Responsory

Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

For you have redeemed me, Lord God of truth.
I commend my spirit.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

Keep me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me under the shadow of your wings.

The Gospel Canticle

The Nunc dimittis (The Song of Simeon) is said

All Save us, O Lord, while waking,
and guard us while sleeping,
that awake we may watch with Christ
and asleep may rest in peace.

1 Now, Lord, you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.

2 My own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people;

3 A light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Luke 2.29-32

All Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

All Save us, O Lord, while waking,
and guard us while sleeping,
that awake we may watch with Christ
and asleep may rest in peace.

The Prayers

Intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered here.

The Collect

Visit this place, O Lord, we pray, and drive far from it the snares of the enemy;
may your holy angels dwell with us and guard us in peace,
and may your blessing be always upon us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Diocesan Centenary Prayer (for those in the Diocese of Blackburn)

Heavenly Father,
in our Centenary year
we rededicate ourselves and our Diocese to you.
Send the Holy Spirit to give us confidence in our witness, generosity in our service,
and love for our neighbours, that your Church may be renewed and many come home to you, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (here) may be said.

The Conclusion

In peace we will lie down and sleep;
for you alone, Lord, make us dwell in safety.

Abide with us, Lord Jesus, for the night is at hand and the day is now past.

As the night watch looks for the morning,
so do we look for you, O Christ.

The Lord bless us and watch over us;
the Lord make his face shine upon us and be gracious to us;
the Lord look kindly on us and give us peace.
Amen.
