Reflections for Daily Prayer

Paid App & Paperback books from Church Publishing House

“Reflections for Daily Prayer is a kind of ‘Daily Bread’ for Anglicans - a great companion for those who like to follow the weekday lectionary readings for morning prayer. It provides a page for each day with the lectionary, a collect and a reflection on one of the set passages. The contributors come from a wide range of traditions but each aims to help the reader understand the passage and apply it to their own journey of Discipleship” - Archdeacon Mark Ireland

“Wordlive is a great resource for daily Bible reading. It gives you a picture, a passage, a comment, pointers for prayer and a song to listen to. If you have more time there is a ‘Going Deeper’ section with more background information and space for comments from users too. Mark and I use it most days for our prayer time together, and we enjoy the flexibility of being able to access it from a tablet or smartphone and the variety of different contributors.” - Gill Ireland
