Looking for a Church of England church?

Bishop Julian welcomes you to our Diocesan website

"Welcome to the Diocese of Blackburn, the Church of England in Lancashire. As a Diocese we are working with our parishes to deliver 'Vision 2026: Healthy Churches Transforming Communities'"

Talk to God in prayer (includes Blackburn Diocese Prayers)

Prayer puts God at the centre of our lives and allows us to start a conversation with Him. We can be forgiven for the things that have gone wrong as we can always start again with God.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL blackburn.anglican.org. The page is divided into two main columns: 'Events' on the left and 'News' on the right. The 'Events' section features three entries for 'With Faith in Mind - Churches Together in Lancashire with MIND' on Tuesday 10, Thursday 12, and Friday 13 October 2017. The 'News' section includes articles about a 'Free Communications advice day for Lancashire parishes' on 4th October 2017, the '70 years of leading Adoption Agency with Diocesan links' on 4th October 2017, and a 'Wanted - high-fiving vicar who doesn't like olives or celery!' on 3rd October 2017. At the bottom of the page, there is a purple banner with a Twitter feed showing a tweet from @stsilasbburn about a harvest festival. The footer contains logos for 'The Blackburn Diocesan Board of Education', 'Whalley Abbey', 'Blackburn Cathedral', 'DARI', 'Together Lancashire', and 'Mothers Union'.

Diocesan Magazine - The See

September 2017

The monthly Diocese of Blackburn magazine is called 'The See' (which is another name for Diocese).

For more information about copy deadlines and submitting articles for the magazine go to the Resources pages of the website and then look under 'Communications Resources'.

News and events

Diocesan Magazine - The See

News

Parishes can obtain copies of The See as follows:

- Email (E25 + VAT pa) – You have the choice of either a Microsoft Word file (text only), or a PDF file. The Word file can be copied and pasted into parish newsletters. The PDF file is designed for local photocopying.
- Mastersheet (E25 + VAT pa) – this is just one physical paper copy which is posted to the church to photocopy directly (either the standard A5 or the A4 version).
- Standard A5 Booklet, folded and stapled (13p each)
- Standard A5 Booklet, folded and unstapled (13p each)
- A4 Booklet, folded and stapled (23p each)
- A4 Booklet, folded and unstapled (23p each)

If parishes wish to arrange a change of delivery address or change the number of copies of The See please contact Karen Ashcroft at karen.ashcroft@blackburn.anglican.org or phone 01254 503070.

Electronic copies of The See (six month rolling basis) can be accessed from the table below. The current month version is 'protected' which means it has a 'watermark' which is removed as soon as the next month's edition is published.

A sidebar on the left lists 'I'm interested in...' (Looking for a church, Baptisms, weddings and funerals, Becoming a Christian, Mission/Vision Action Planning, Submitting parish returns) and 'I am a...' (Visitor, Churchwarden, PCC Treasurer, PCC Member, Parish Safeguarding Officer, Children's / Youth worker, Teacher/ Church School Governor). A large image of a crowd at a stadium is overlaid with a green banner that reads 'Vision 2026: Healthy Churches Transforming Communities'. Below this, a pink banner asks 'Looking for a Church of England church?' and provides a 'Find a Church' link. The bottom section contains a welcome message from Bishop Julian and a prayer invitation.

UPDATED: JULY 2017:

Welcome to the website of Blackburn Diocese Mothers' Union

2017 DEANERY FESTIVAL DATES and NEWS FROM AROUND THE DEANERIES - PLEASE GO TO EVENTS PAGE
Please note amended date - 14th October at 3.00pm: Cathedral Service to celebrate 90 years.

FAITH AND POLICY WATCH:
Faith & Policy Watch is our monthly social policy newsletter. Through the newsletter, we highlight social policy issues as they relate to our faith, looking at a whole range of issues from UK Government legislation and developments in the Church, to what's happening at the international level. Many articles give ideas and suggestions for action and you can use the newsletter to inspire your own social policy work or to support the work of others in prayer.

Welcome to the Church of England's online parish return system

Statistics for Mission and Return of Parish Finance

Entering data?

First, gather your figures from

- Service registers and numbers of baptisms, marriages, and funerals for statistics for mission (due by 31st January 2018)
- Accounts for return of parish finance

If it's helpful to collect the figures on a paper form before you enter it online, you can download the forms below. Then ...

Enter your data

Viewing data?

Are you curious about how things have changed in your parish over time? Or are you wondering what you entered last year?

View your data

Confused?

If you have any queries or comments, please contact your diocesan office or the Church of England Research & Statistics unit: statistics.unit@churchofengland.org

Once submitted, your data will be available to your diocese to help them understand the activities and needs of their churches and to support their mission. Information provided through this system will be included in statistical publications and made available online.

Some people find it helpful to print off a copy of the form as they collect together the numbers before entering in to their return. If you would find this helpful, the forms are given below:

- Statistics for Mission Form (.doc)
- Statistics for Mission Form (.pdf)
- Return of Parish Finance (.xlsx)
- Return of Parish Finance (.xls)

What is The Pastoral Services Diary

The Pastoral Services Diary is our powerful, full-featured, intuitive, web-based software, built to help churches with the administration of their occasional offices. It's a tool which assists clergy and churches to build, maintain and strengthen relationships with those for whom their church provides occasional offices.

The Pastoral Services Diary ties together the thinking, research and advice of the Church Support Hub, and customisable cards, leaflets and other resources available to purchase from the Church Print Hub.

Major Parish Churches

The Church of England's buildings form the nation's single largest 'estate' of built heritage.

Churches are the most public indication of the Church's role in the community, both as the places in which public worship takes place and as a focus for many events which reach beyond the worshipping congregation to society at large. They have also been integral to this country's history and development.

Though first and foremost places of worship, churches are also often the oldest building in a settlement still in continual use. Many are the largest, most architecturally complex, most archaeologically sensitive, and most visited building in their village, town or city.

With the help of their tireless volunteers, church buildings across the

When it feels irreplaceable, trust Ecclesiastical

Founded in 1887 to insure the Anglican church, Ecclesiastical is the UK's leading church insurer. We provide specialist church insurance for church buildings and church people, as well as a range of expert guidance, advice and support.

Why choose Ecclesiastical for your church insurance?

"At Ecclesiastical, we protect the irreplaceable – not just the bricks and mortar, objects or organisations but what they represent to the people that love and depend on them.

We've been caring for churches for the last 130 years and understand just how much they mean to the communities they support and the best ways to keep them safe for the future."
