3. The lawful basis for using your information

We collect and use personal data as explained below.

- Legitimate interest – we may need to process your information to undertake safeguarding tasks, including doing all that we reasonably can to ensure that no-one is at risk of harm during Church of England activities.

Legitimate Interest Assessment

We have undertaken a Legitimate Interest Assessment which sets out why we have a legitimate interest.

We have a specific purpose with a defined benefit	The consideration of matters which are brought to our attention in order that, amongst other things, we can identify any potential wrongdoing, inappropriate behaviour, or unlawful conduct, and put in place a safer way of working across the Church of England.
The processing is necessary to achieve the defined benefit.	Unless we properly appreciate the detail of the matters to which you refer we cannot take steps to ensure that we have provided the most appropriate safeguarding response.
The purpose is balanced against, and does not override, the interests, rights and freedoms of data subjects.	There is the risk of significant and/or serious harm to others if unsuitable individuals are appointed. This risk is greatest where allegations are not properly addressed. This is balanced against, and does not override, your interests, rights and freedoms.

For a copy of the full Legitimate Interest Assessment, please contact our Data Protection Team, whose contact details are set out at section 10 below.

- Legal obligation – we may need to process your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, such as under the Inquiries Act 2005 which may compel us to provide personal data for the purposes of a statutory inquiry, or a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006, or an order of a court or tribunal.

Special categories & criminal information

- Substantial public interest (protecting the public against dishonesty etc.) – we may need to process your information where necessary for the protection of members of the public generally against seriously improper conduct, and from any failures in connection with, the Church of England’s activities, or for safeguarding purposes.

This lawful basis is applied in the UK only, with reference to the GDPR Article 9(2)(g), and the Data Protection Act 2018 Schedule 2, paragraph 11. For those based outside the UK in other jurisdictions, they will have to ensure that their Member State law provides similar or equivalent use of 9(2)(g).

- Legal claims – we may need to process your information where there is a legal claim, or in connection with a judicial process.
- Archiving - we may keep your information for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

4. Who we collect from or share your information with:

Once your information has been collected by a NCI it may be used by other NCIs, where necessary, to provide a complete service to you, and we do this on the lawful bases listed above. It is for this reason that we link your information together, for example, to save you providing your information more than once.

5. Your personal data will not be sent to countries outside the EEA without your consent, and with necessary safeguards.

The NCIs do not share your information with countries outside of the UK or EEA without your consent and necessary safeguards.

6. How long do we keep your information?

There's often a legal and/or business reason for keeping your information for a set period, as stated in our retention schedule.

7. Security

We are committed to ensuring that your personal data is secure. We limit access to data on a need to know basis and test our security practices and technologies.

Employees and temporary workers are required to follow policies and procedures and complete mandatory annual training to understand data protection and information security.

If a data breach does occur, we will do everything in our power to limit the damage. In the case of a high-risk data breach, and depending on the circumstances, we will inform you about the breach and any remedial actions to prevent any further damage. We will also inform the Information Commissioner's Office of any qualifying data breaches.

8. Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision making without access to human intervention.

9. Your rights

You have the following rights regarding your personal data, subject to exemptions:
