Sunday to Saturday Faith

Have you read the booklet which came with the last edition of The Reader magazine, outlining an exciting new vision for Reader ministry? If not, we recommend that you do! What did you think? We will have the opportunity to discuss this at our November get-together, and you can also email your thoughts direct to the Central Readers Council through the email provided at the end of the booklet.